AFRICAN HORSE SICKNESS
SIGNS TO WATCH FOR

Signs vary with species as well as with forms of this disease, but these images show the most common signs.

- Swelling around the eyes will make the head look swollen
- Reddened eyes
- Difficulty breathing and frothy discharge from the nose

Contact your vet or animal health worker if your donkey, horse or pony looks sick; they can take a sample and test for this disease.